

"See you at Victors"

"When I accepted an administrative post with the University of Michigan in 1990, one of the first places that welcomed me was the Campus Inn. Whether greeting colleagues and friends for fine lunches or dinner, casual meetings over a drink, or recommending a warm, hospitable spot for guests and out-of-town luminaries, the Campus Inn is still the place that first comes to mind and to which I always return. See you there!"

Erik Fredricksen, Professor
School of Music, Theatre,
& Dance

Revived. Refined. Remarkable.
